McKINLEY REPLIES.

He Answers Mr. Wilson's Speech at the London Banquet.

Criticises the Compliments Paid Wilson by Englishmen.

MILLS OPEN THERE.

But No American Mills Start Up Says McKinley.

GALLIPOLI, Ohio, Sept. 29.—Here, in a beautiful park on the bank of the Ohio river, on whose opposite shore rose the hills of West Virginia, the author of the McKinley tariff law paid his compliments to the author of the Wilson tariff law. In the course of his long address, Governor McKinley inquired what industries the tariff law of 1894 created and what existing industries it had stimulated, and said: "I find answer to my question in the newspaper dispatches of to-day from London, furnishing particulars of a banquet given by the chamber of commerce of London to Mr. Wilson, member of congress from the state of West Virginia, whose rugged hillsides I see just over the river. Sir Albert Kave Rollet, who presided at the banquet, said that Mr. Wilson's name had become honored and familiar in England and that London, in honoring him honored itself; that the new tariff law, while it might not have realized the aspirations of its promoters, had already benefited England.

"Furnaces have been reopened in Wales and Yorkshire and an impetus has been given to the textile industries. This will be cheering news to the people of the United States and will bring comfort to the idle men who, for a year, have been waiting for the American mills to reopen. You have not heard any commercial body in the United States, through its spokesman, declaring that any industries in America have been stimulated by this law, whatever benefits have gone to other countries. While the banquet at London was proceeding, the board of trade at Edinburgh sent its congratulations. There was a singular absence of any American dispatches. (Prolonged applause.) Here is a word of encouragement which Mr. Wilson himself gave to the gentlemen of London. He said: 'Our protection has been building defenses to keep you and other nations from competing with us in our home markets. The tariff reformers are breaking down these defenses. That,' continued Governor McKinley, 'is what we object to. If we do not defend our home markets against the products of the cheaper labor of other countries, who will? Is it any wonder that the gentlemen of the chamber of commerce of London applauded Mr. Wilson when he uttered such a sentiment?'

"Mr. Wilson even despairs of free government, for he said we are being rapidly sobered, though unappreciated, by the truth forced upon us that of all human governments a free government is the most complex, and judged from the world's experience, the most uncertain and short lived. I beg to assure Mr. Wilson that the government of the United States is a free people, is safe and secure—quite secure as governments that are conducted by the titled few, and that a people like ours, capable of governing themselves, and having so demonstrated for more than one hundred years, will be alert enough to see to it that no industrial policy shall long continue in this country that will lower the conditions of its people to the level of their European rivals and rob them of their dignity and independence."

PAYMENT OF PENSIONS.

Disbursements for the Last Fiscal Year Were $137,636,981.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 29.—The report of the Third auditor of the treasury for the fiscal year ending June 30, 1894, shows the total disbursements to pension agencies to have been $137,636,981. The amounts paid to pensioners under the general laws were as follows: Invalids, $58,682,119; widows, $13,412,021; minors, $1,010,204; dependent relatives, $3,981,901.

The amounts paid under the act of June 27, 1890, were as follows: Invalids, $43,666,991; widows, $9,856,892; minors, $927,004; dependent relatives, $1,709,829; helpless children, $8,063.

To pensioners of the war of 1812 the following amounts were paid: Survivors, $5,312; widows, $44,207.

Under the Mexican war survivors were paid $1,388,701 and widows $308,345.

Indian war claims paid amount to $377,883 to survivors, and $456,632 to widows.

Army nurses received $65,682. About $650,000 was paid to pension examining surgeons and the balance of the total disbursements were for expenses of pension agents.

Publicly Coughed a Merchant.

COURTLAND, La., Sept. 29.—Abraham, a prominent merchant, was publicly coughed here yesterday by Miss Lucille Doss, daughter of Porter Doss, Sr., proprietor of the Doss hotel. It is said that Abraham made a disparaging remark about Miss Doss, which reached her ears. The young woman armed herself with a cowhide and proceeded to give her alleged defamer a flogging that brought streams of blood with every blow, and made him beg for mercy. Abraham was also attacked by a brother of the young lady and would have been killed but for the interference of the chief of police, who arrested all the parties.

Pond's Evening School Reopens next Monday evening.CORBETT TO FITZSIMMONS.

Will Not Fight Him Until He Has Gone Against O'Donnell.

PORTLAND, Me., Sept. 29.—James J. Corbett has sent the following to Fitzsimmons:

PORTLAND, Me., Sept. 28, 1894.

Robert Fitzsimmons,
Dear Sir: I have read in the morning papers your very amusing challenge to me. You say the Olympic club offers a purse. Well, maybe they do, but I have never heard from them as yet. You put $10,000 in the Olympic club's hands—why don't you put it up in some newspaper office, or some place where a man can see it, or in the Olympic club backing you? However, that's neither here nor there. I suppose you are afraid if you put the money up in any other place besides the Olympic club some one else might cover it. It is not necessary for me to give a reply to your challenge, because you are well aware that I will not accept it, unless you prove yourself a champion heavyweight and not a middleweight.

"I must acknowledge that as a 'middleweight' you have no equal, but all you ever did was to defeat Peter Maher and Joe Choynski, two second class 'heavyweights,' since both of these men have been defeated by Joe Goddard of Australia, another second class 'heavyweight.'

"No one thinks this better than you. I suppose you think the public will say 'you're a very brave man' to challenge me and fight me. Why shouldn't you do so? It is just like buying a lottery ticket to win $3,000 for $1; all you have to lose is $1, and it is the same case in fighting me. If I defeated you, of course you would say, 'he ought to beat me; I am only a middleweight,' just as when I beat Sullivan, it was said, 'He is an old man,' and Mitchell, 'He is a light fellow; he was too small.'

"Now, Mr. Fitzsimmons, if you really, in your heart, want to fight for the championship of the world, you certainly, if you are on the level, want to prove yourself a champion heavyweight and not a middleweight. All you have to do in the world is to fight me for the championship, to prove to me and to the world that you are capable of defeating any heavyweight outside of me.

"You say I promised to give you a match if you defeated Choynski or Goddard. When you say that, you know you lie. I never even noticed you, and don't intend to unless you prove yourself a champion heavyweight."

"You want to jump over the heads of all these other people and take that dying chance with me, but I will fool you. Steve O'Donnell, my present sparring partner, an undefeated man, has $10,000 that he can defeat you. He will box you from one round to a finish for fun or for money. Now, how can you expect me to recognize you when this man stands with the back of his hand to the world that he is your superior? If you will only meet him and defeat him I will accept an offer of twenty-five thousand dollars ($25,000) from the Olympic club and I will give you all the fight you want. If you want to fight me this is the only way you can ever get me to make a match with you. For there is no power on earth that will make me notice you until you have defeated Steve O'Donnell and any further talk from you I will consider and simply put down as bluff. I put myself on record in black and white, that if you defeat O'Donnell I will fight you for the championship of the world and all the money you like. This is positively my ultimatum. Yours truly, JAMES J. CORBETT.
"Champion of the World."

CAN'T GO BLOOMERS.

A Chicago Crank Makes Life a Burden to the Girls on Bicycles.

CHICAGO, Sept. 29.—"Jack the Whipper" has broken loose and is making life full of terror to the female bicyclists who ride in Washington park during the evening. Jack has a frantic aversion to the bloomers, and his method of expressing his disapproval is to plant a few lusty welts with a rawhide upon every pair of bloomers that he can find with a girl inside of them. His plan for the last two nights has been to wait behind a tree until a bicyclist in bloomers comes along, then he springs out and plies the rawhide vigorously. He has severely whipped two young women and pursued several others. The park policemen have been so far unable to catch him.

NEBRASKA DEMOCRATS.

"Regulars" May Be Shut Out From Filling Certificates of Nominees.

OMAHA, Neb., Sept. 29.—To-day the regular state Democratic convention officers will attempt to file the certificate showing the ticket selected by that body Wednesday. It is understood the secretary of state will refuse to receive it on the theory that the certificate filed by the bolters' convention settles the convention as far as his authority extends. Mandamus proceedings will follow at once, but it is feared it will be unnecessarily delayed until too late. The bolters filed a certificate yesterday to conform with the date of the convention, opening and closing.

Struck Natural Gas.

NEVADA, Mo., Sept. 29.—At a depth of 125 feet natural gas was struck yesterday on A. P. Wilson's farm in this county, eighteen miles northwest of Nevada, eleven feet farther the gas vein became so strong that the noise made by its escape from the well was heard three miles away. A 30-foot pipe was fixed in the well and the gas lighted, the flames shot out at least thirty feet further. It is the intention to drill to a depth of 500 feet.

One Hundred and Fifty Years Old.

KENNEBEC, Texas, Sept. 29.—A Mexican named Mercedico died at Ingram, near this city, to-day. His relatives and intimate friends assert most positively that he was 150 years old. He has been married five times, marrying his first wife 109 years ago. He had three grown sons in the war of 1812.

JUST MODERATE.

Bradstreet Reports a Week of Moderate Reaction.

Wheat Makes Another Lowest Price on Record.

CORN AND OATS LOWER

Volume of Purchases of Staples in the West Larger.

NEW YORK, Sept. 29.—Bradstreet's says: The feature of general trade throughout the country is found in moderate reaction during the week, more particularly in the volumes of purchases of staples West, where trade has been quite active and at Eastern points in the course of prices, the week failing to show any upward movement of note in this line, and in the check to business South, together with damage to the rice and orange crops. Leading jobbers at distributing points which for a month past have reported relatively most favorably concerning the course of business—Baltimore, St. Louis, Nashville and Chicago—send modified advice as to activity and the bright outlook. Wheat has made another "lowest price" and Indian corn and oats have both declined. Sugar, it being fairly active but low at Minneapolis, but stiffer at St. Louis in contrast with advices from Chicago and elsewhere. Leather is fairly firm, and in distribution dry goods, shoes, millinery and notions lead.

Exports of wheat (and flour as well as wheat), both coasts, United States and Canada, this week have fallen off some, amounting to 2,562,000 bushels, against 3,537,000 bushels last week and 3,475,000 bushels in the week a year ago. Two years ago the total was 4,050,000, three years ago, 3,405,000 bushels and four years ago, 1,593,000 bushels.

London wool sales have proved disappointing to those who predicted or anticipated heavy purchasing for the American market and rapid advances in prices. On this side quotations are off one cent, fleece particularly being weak. There is better trade in territories and Australia.

Bank Clearings.

NEW YORK, Sept. 29.—The following table, compiled by Bradstreet's, shows the total clearances at the cities, named and the percentage of increase or decrease as compared with the corresponding week last year:

| Cities | Clearings | Inc. | Dec. |
|-------------|-------------|------|------|
| Kansas City | $9,913,751 | 37.8 | |
| Omaha | 4,061,490 | 9.2 | |
| Denver | 2,378,406 | 51.6 | |
| St. Joe | 1,129,271 | 17.7 | |
| Lynch | 894,813 | | |
| Wichita | 891,913 | 1.3 | |
| Topeka | 413,507 | 24.7 | |

THE CZAR WORIE.

It Is Believed That He Is Suffering From a Stroke of Apoplexy.

LONDON, Sept. 29.—A dispatch to the Times from St. Petersburg says the condition of the Czar is considerably worse. The kidney inflammation from which he is suffering is much increased and as his majesty's breathing at the beginning of the week became somewhat difficult and hard, Professor Layden, the celebrated specialist in internal complaints, was summoned from Berlin. He arrived at Spala Tuesday evening. His majesty appears to suffer much pain and is very low spirited. The fact that Professor Layden, who is a leading specialist in brain and spinal diseases, has been summoned to attend the Czar gives color to the report that his majesty is suffering from a stroke of apoplexy.

A Seven-Year-Old Girl Saves a Train.

DETROIT, Iowa, Sept. 29.—A 7-year-old girl saved a passenger train on the Chicago and Great Western road near Dunder yesterday. She was seen by the engineer waving her little red apron as a signal. The engineer stopped the train and the little girl told him that the bridge around the curve was burning. The child was on her way to the pasture near her home to drive in the cattle.

General Store Looted.

SULPHUR SPRINGS, Ark., Sept. 29.—A wholesale robbery occurred here at the store of Hibler Mercantile company. The robbers came in a wagon and proceeded to loot the store, loading their wagon with the choicest goods in the stock, such as shoes, hats, clothing dry goods, etc., all of the best and then made their escape.

Both Died Game.

PARIS, Ky., Sept. 29.—Tom Greene and Eugene Fulkis, white men, were executed yesterday afternoon for murders committed in the Indian territory. Both were game to the last. Fulkis dying with curses on his lips. They both declined the services of a minister, either in jail or on the scaffold.

MRS. PEARY INDIGNANT.

She Makes Vigorous Denial of the Charges Made by Swain.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 29.—Mrs. Peary, wife of the explorer, has made an indignant denial of the charges made by W. T. Swain, one of the members of the expedition, against Lieutenant Peary's conduct and also the food furnished. As to the charges of ungentlemanly conduct, Mrs. Peary said her husband was over-scrupulous in his treatment of the men. Mrs. Peary added: "As to the fare, he gave them the very best it was possible to obtain. Everybody in the party was treated with entire impartiality. Mr. Peary ate at the table with the men and shared with them in every way. I could not, of course, go to the public table on account of my baby. I had to hold the little one in my arms and it made it very inconvenient to eat there. A number of my friends sent me some canned things and Mr. Peary made me keep them for myself. He would never touch any of those things himself, however, saying he preferred to share in every particular with the men. If there is any discussion as regards the food, Mrs. Cross, the trained nurse, who acted as cook, can settle the whole matter. She knows very well how Lieutenant Peary tried to obtain the proper rations."

"Were the men sent on these long trips without any preparation, as Swain alleges?"

"Well, I don't exactly know what is meant by preparations," said Mrs. Peary. "About all the preparations they had to make was to hitch up the dogs and put on their furs. As to Mr. Swain's lameness, he had what is termed infantile paralysis. He was lame on that account and no other."

Swain Corroborated.

SPRINGFIELD, Ill., Sept. 29.—Dr. Edward Vincent, surgeon of the Peary arctic expedition, in a letter written to his father, Dr. John A. Vincent, president of the state board of health, corroborates the charges made by W. T. Swain, Peary's private secretary, sent out from Philadelphia Tuesday. Dr. Vincent charges Lieutenant Peary with neglect, incompetency and general fraud and says the expedition started out with far less supplies than what Peary started with and that Peary has "fooled the people to a large extent and mismanaged the expedition."
